

copyrightnote

The component<sup>version two</sup>library has been created by Alexander Franzen for drawing optical layouts. All the symbols are basically in the public domain – so feel free to use them. If you happen to like them, please give reference to their creator. That way perhaps I'll become famous one day... !